Types of sessions:

1. Practice-Oriented Demonstration (30 minutes). A demonstration is used for showing rather than telling about a technique. The presenter's statement of theory should take no longer than 10 minutes. Often the presenter models teaching techniques, usually has handouts and/or audiovisual aids. The demonstration should be based on a PowerPoint Presentation. The demonstration summary should include a brief statement of the central purpose and description of the presentation.

2. Workshops (60 minutes). A workshop involves very little lecturing; it mainly emphasizes participation in a carefully structured activity. Workshops should have a pedagogic orientation such that attendees leave with enhanced skills, knowledge and understanding. The leader/leaders work with the group, helping them to solve a problem or develop a specific teaching or research technique. The workshop summary should include a statement of the goal(s), a synopsis of the theory behind it, and a description of the tasks to be performed during the workshop.

We expect workshop leaders and demonstration presenters to come largely from the ranks of TESOL-Ukraine membership.

UNGRADED WRITING AS A TOOL TO PROMOTE LEARNING

Oksana Yarmolenko (Kyiv, Ukraine)

Few foreign language teachers would deny the fact that writing is an integral part of language learning. A much more valuable source of feedback on how much students learnt than conventional tests. Writing is a complex of skills that requires continuous practice. It involves application of discipline-specific knowledge and skills, critical thinking skills. It shows the ability to use the language to accomplish communication goals. Thus, helping students to improve their writing is the responsibility of every teacher.
